Key Features

This charming property is arranged over three floors and provides generous and versatile living space. The accommodation includes bright reception rooms, a well-proportioned kitchen, and three spacious bedrooms. Whilst some areas would benefit from modernisation, the home offers superb scope for buyers to create a stunning family residence tailored to their own taste and style.

A particular highlight is the impressive south-facing rear garden – a large, private space with mature borders, expansive lawn, and excellent potential for outdoor entertaining. To the front, the property benefits from secure off-road parking for multiple vehicles, a rare feature within this prestigious address.

Key Features:

Attractive semi-detached family home in prime Mapperley Park

Arranged over three floors with versatile living accommodation
