Information

A beautifully maintained two-bedroom ground floor apartment, offered with no onward chain and an extended lease, ideally located in a popular and convenient part of Solihull.

Situated on Northdown Road, just off Dingle Lane and Blossomfield Road, the property benefits from excellent transport links and proximity to key local amenities, including Solihull town centre, Solihull College, Tudor Grange Park, and the train station with direct services to Birmingham and London.

This purpose-built apartment sits within a well-kept block set back from the road, with ample off-road parking and secure intercom access. The accommodation includes a fitted kitchen with space for dining, a spacious living/dining room with access to the communal gardens, two generous double bedrooms, WC, and a family bathroom. The property also includes a single garage.

With its desirable location, extended lease, and vacant possession, this is an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors.
