Thinking of Selling?

If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.

Dating back to 1900s and first marketed since 1962, this characterful, Victorian three storey semi-detached occupies an outstanding south facing plot, within very easy access of local schools, Boldmere and Wylde Green shops, with good transport links to surrounding areas.

The remarkable property, which requires some updating and modernisation, is nevertheless in very good original condition, boasting many characterful features, with fireplaces, stripped doors, ceiling roses, cornices, deep skirtings, sash windows, and beautiful Minton tiling to the reception hall. Testament to a bygone era and offering immense potential for improvement and extension, properties of this calibre are exceptionally rare, and viewing to appreciate the accommodation on offer is highly recommended.

The property, which doesn't have central heating, briefly comprises; enclosed porch, impressive reception hall with stained glass entrance, Minton tiled floor and door to cellar, dining room with feature open fireplace, living room with feature fireplace, breakfast room with feature fireplace and side cupboards, Butler's pantry, kitchen with gas water heater and opening to side porch, utility and downstairs WC, offering great potential to extend.

First floor, bathroom and separate WC, 4 super bedrooms all with feature fireplaces, bedroom four having steps down to study/bedroom and door to games room, currently used as a table tennis room (above original coach house and stable with ladder steps). Second floor, further stairs to landing with box room and billiard room/bedroom with feature fireplace.

Outside, front garden with Holly hedge and mature Copper Beech tree, lawn and pebble driveway. Two car tandem garage with entrance doors to front and rear, secluded, south facing garden, with brick paved patio, covered pergola, original coach house and stable, offering immense potential for annex accommodation (subject to planning). Extensive lawn with hedge and fenced surround and garden shed.

Total floor area 323.9 m² (3,487 sq.ft.) approx
