Offered with no upward chain and occupying a highly desirable and very convenient cul-de-sac location, this deceptively spacious, well arranged and well-maintained detached dormer bungalow simply must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Situated just off Wylde Green Road via Birmingham Road, accessible for Sutton Coldfield and Wylde Green amenities, the gas centrally heated and double-glazed accommodation briefly comprises;

Covered porch, reception hall with tiled floors and stairs to first floor, living room with feature fireplace, dining room, kitchen/breakfast/family room with a range of units including Bosch double oven, four ring hob and extractor hood, fridge, dishwasher, slate floor, double French doors to patio and double doors to living room. Inner hallway having under-stairs cupboard, bedroom one having two double wardrobes and vanity sink unit, bedroom two having vanity sink unit and family bathroom having a refitted white suite with separate shower cabinet.

First floor, landing having under eaves storage, two double wardrobes and large loft store with gas combi boiler, bedroom three with under eaves storage and vanity sink unit, bedroom four is another lovely double bedroom with dual aspect. Upstairs is completed with a shower room with white suite. Covered side hallway with doors to garden and garage and downstairs WC, garage opening to spacious utility/store.

Outside, front garden occupying a commanding frontage with in-and-out driveway and island providing ample parking. Rear garden with shaped patio, lawn, shrubs, fence and mature tree screening and gated side entrance.
