AUCTION NOTES

Open to bid on the 18th of December for 24 hours starting at 12.00 noon (closing bids 12.00 noon the 19th of December) through our online bidding system available on our website. A traditional auction under common auction conditions held online.

Buying at auction is a contractual commitment, you are legally obliged to buy the lot on the terms of the sale memorandum at the price you bid. If you are the successful bidder, you are required to pay the deposit and auction fees immediately. As agent for the seller, we treat any failure to satisfy your obligations as your repudiation of the contract and the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract. You must not bid unless you wish to be bound by the common conditions of auction. Please be aware there may be additional fees payable on top of the final sale price. These include and are not limited to administration charges and buyer's premium fees payable on exchange, and disbursements payable on completion. Please ensure you check the property information page for a list of any relevant additional fees as well as reading the legal pack for any disbursements.

CONTRACT INFORMATION

We draw your attention to the Special Conditions of Sale within the Legal Pack, referring to other charges in addition to the purchase price which may become payable. Such costs may include Search Fees, reimbursement of Sellers costs and Legal Fees, and Transfer Fees amongst others.

GUIDE PRICE

*GUIDE PRICE: This is an estimate of the likely range of selling price and is set at the commencement of marketing. The guide price may change during the marketing period. RESERVE PRICE: This is agreed with the Auctioneer prior to the auction and will not be disclosed to the public. The reserve price is the lowest figure at which the property is available for sale at the auction. If the lot is not sold at the auction then the property may be available for sale afterwards at a higher or lower figure. See catalogue for full explanation.
