68 Tenderah Road Helston, TR13 8NT

Welcome to this three bedroom detached bungalow which is nestled away in a sought after residential part of the town yet still convenient for the town centre and local amenities. For families with children, the proximity to an excellent primary and secondary school is a notable advantage and being sold with no onward chain is another. The spacious living accommodation comprises a hallway, shower room, two doubles and a single bedroom, a kitchen, lounge and a dining room which is accessed from the kitchen. The garage is a handy storage area and there is also parking at the front on the shared driveway. The garden offers a good degree of privacy and is enclosed which is great for dogs and children. Perfect family or retirement home.

LOCATION

Situated in a popular residential location within easy reach of Helston Community College as well as the town centre. Helston enjoys a leisure centre with a swimming pool and large gym and many amenity areas including the Coronation Boating Lake and the beautiful National Trust Penrose Estate offering a host of woodland walks. Helston is famed for its historic Flora Day celebrations on 8 May when the town is bedecked with greenery, bluebells and gorse and throughout the day dancers weave in and out of shops, houses and gardens following the Helston Town Band playing the famous Floral Dance and ushering in the Summer. Helston is widely regarded as the gateway to the stunning Lizard Peninsula and is within a 10 minute drive of the thriving harbour and coastline at Porthleven offering an array of shops and good quality restaurants as well as world class surf. The city of Truro and the towns of Falmouth, Penzance and Hayle are all within a 20 to 30 minute drive.
