Location

Nestled within the beautiful Cornish countryside and surrounded by farmland, woods and a National Trust Estate is the picturesque semi rural village of Godolphin Cross. Offering easy access to both the North and South coasts, as well as the popular fishing village of Porthleven with its fantastic array of restaurants. The larger village of Breage is just 2 miles away providing a Public House and Post Office with Shop. The location of this super property is sure to impress those seeking a taste of the countryside with many gorgeous walks on the doorstep including Godolphin Hill and Tregonning Hill, both with stunning panoramic views over South West Cornwall. The towns of Helston, Hayle and Penzance are within a 15 to 20 minute drive of the property. The stunning beach at Praa sands is approximately 10 minutes away by car.
