Location

St Erth is a sought after village which has a lovely pub, village store, children's play park, church, and a well regarded school and nursery. There are some pretty walks along the St Erth River to enjoy, with a few fishing lakes locally. St Ives, Hayle, Penzance and the A30 are all within easy reach. Transport links are great too with a bus stop at the end of the road and a train station close by which serves the nearby town of St Ives Bay as well as Truro and London, Paddington.
