Location

Gweek is a hugely sought after Creekside village on the outskirts of the North Helford offering excellent access to Helston, Truro, Falmouth and the famed sailing waters of the Helford River. The village itself offers a wonderful active community with a range of facilities including a shop, a Public House with restaurant, The Boatyard and the Boatyard Café. There is a well used village hall which is used for a variety of community events, a playgroup and the "Gweek Players" annual productions. Gweek is also home to the Cornish Seal Sanctuary.

Outside

The property occupies a generous plot in a truly wonderful rural setting. The immediate gardens are laid to lawn, with a large range of trees, shrubs, flowers and bushes, as well as a patio area. Given the property's position, it benefits from good hours of sunshine. Proceeding through to the extended garden, there is an outbuilding providing really useful storage and workshop space. There are various growing areas, with Cornish stone walling to the northern boundary. The garden then opens us to a beautiful open meadow, with a variety of Cornish apple trees, mature pines and a Polytunnel, which is perfect for those looking to grow their own produce. The off road parking area in front of the garage provides space for several vehicles, and is laid to Tarmac.

Garage

Good size garage with a front aspect door and side aspect pedestrian door. Power and light.

Parking

The property benefits from off road parking in front of the garage for 2-3 vehicles.

Services

Mains water and electricity. Private drainage (septic tank). Our clients use a log burner to power a system of radiators. Freehold tenure.

Solar Panels

Our clients have informed us that they own a solar thermal panel which is located in the garden. This can be used to heat the hot water.
