Guide Price £150,000-£160,000

This upper floor flat enjoys a highly convenient position within easy reach of local shops, doctors and dentists, as well as excellent transport links. Regular bus routes connect the area with Erith, Belvedere, Abbey Wood, Bexleyheath, Plumstead, Woolwich and Greenwich, placing a wide range of amenities and destinations within comfortable reach. Abbey Wood Station, offering Southeastern, Thameslink and Elizabeth Line services is just one mile away, providing fast and reliable connections into central London and beyond.

The property offers a welcoming layout with a notably well-proportioned kitchen, ideal for everyday cooking and a comfortable bathroom with ample space. The main bedroom is generous in size and enjoys good natural light, giving it a warm and inviting feel. There is also ample storage throughout the flat, enhancing practicality and helping maintain a tidy, organised living space.

The lounge has been thoughtfully adapted to create a proper single bedroom, adding valuable versatility to the home. This arrangement offers flexibility for those seeking an additional bedroom, home office or guest room. If preferred, the space can be easily returned to a spacious reception room, providing an attractive central living area for relaxing or entertaining.

With its adaptable layout, excellent transport connections and easy access to local services, this property presents a great opportunity for buyers seeking practicality, convenience and potential.
