Meeting House Lane, SE15

Once inside the property has been thoughtfully reconfigured throughout, cleverly maximising the floor area, and creating a wonderful space for entertaining and living. To the front the reception room benefits from lots of natural light from two large sash windows. The open plan kitchen has plenty of units and integrated appliances yet still leaves space for a designated dining area.

Elsewhere two bedrooms are generously-sized, both of which feature built in storage, the rear bedroom leading out to a private balcony overlooking neighbouring gardens with views of the Shard. The bathroom is sleek and modern with shower over the bath and with sleek fittings.
