The ground floor delivers a truly sociable layout, ideal for entertaining or relaxing as a family. A large and light filled reception room at the front of the house sets the tone, while to the rear, a stylishly opened up kitchen and dining area offers a further inviting space to cook, eat, and unwind. Additional features on this level include a handy downstairs WC and a separate utility room with direct access to a private courtyard garden. Upstairs, the home continues to impress with three generously sized double bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en suite, while the remaining two bedrooms are served by a modern, family-sized bathroom.
