Set behind a charming walled front garden, this exquisite Victorian terraced house offers an impressive 1,427 square foot of beautifully balanced living space with the elegant Georgian proportions so rarely found. This is a home full of character and period detail from soaring high ceilings and sash windows, to solid wood flooring and a wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting ambience throughout.

The semi open-plan double reception room is the heart of the home, perfect for both relaxing evenings and entertaining guests. Flowing seamlessly into the spacious dining area, the layout offers flexibility and a real sense of grandeur. To the rear, a stylish, modern kitchen is bathed in natural light, courtesy of bi-fold doors that open directly onto a private, walled garden, a tranquil oasis of mature planting and a dedicated al fresco dining area. The kitchen is fully fitted with high-spec appliances and features a generous central island, ideal for everyday living and social occasions alike. A practical utility room sits just off the kitchen, while a useful cellar provides excellent storage space. Upstairs, the property boasts three generously sized double bedrooms, each flooded with natural light and offering comfortable, versatile accommodation. They are served by a well-appointed family bathroom, maintaining the tasteful blend of period charm and modern convenience seen throughout.
