This immaculately presented end of terrace home is situated in an elevated position within the ever popular harbourside village of Flushing.

Being elevated, the property enjoys far reaching views over Flushing, down to the river and across to the Greenbank area of Falmouth.

A part of a small terrace of just three houses, the property has been much improved and updated with the accommodation in brief comprising; an open plan kitchen/living space with utility area downstairs, whilst upstairs offers two bedrooms and a modern shower room. Outside, the gardens have been fully landscaped and provide two lovely areas comprising a raised paved terrace with views down to the river and over rooftops to the fields and a private, secluded decked area with both enjoying a southerly aspect that enjoys most of the days sunshine.

The popular village of Flushing is located on the banks of the Penryn River and sits opposite the harbour town of Falmouth which is served by a regular ferry service. The village offers a good range of facilities including a village store, Flushing Sailing Club and quayside cafe, a farmers market offering local produce along with a primary and junior school. The traditional Royal Standard public house with its open log fire is nearby along with the new Harbour House Restaurant which has recently opened with a Green Michelin Star chef in residence! A stroll along the cliff will take you to Mylor Yacht Club that provide tasty breakfasts whilst overlooking the boats. Further more comprehensive facilities can be found in the surrounding towns of Penryn and Falmouth that are approximately two miles and four miles away respectively.

The property would suit those looking to make this their home, as a bolt hole or an investment.

A viewing is strongly recommended!
