A four bedroom detached family home situated in a tucked away position in a well regarded cul-de-sac on the outer fringes of Helston.

Sitting on a good sized plot with the majority of the gardens lying to the rear, this modern residence provides spacious accommodation with features including double glazing and gas central heating. The property is considered ideal for a large family as it has a number of rooms with the accommodation in brief comprising; entrance hall, cloakroom, lounge with glazed French doors leading to the dining room, spacious kitchen, further dining area/breakfast room and a doorway to a utility room to the ground floor. During the current owners tenure, a conversion of the original garage has been undertaken to provide a further bedroom/reception room. On the first floor, there is a landing, and three further bedrooms (the principle of which has generous proportions with an en-suite shower room) and a family sized bathroom.

Outside, to the front, there is off road parking for three vehicles and a small lawn. The majority of the gardens can be found to the rear where there is a generous enclosed garden which is mainly laid to lawn with a patio area and a timber outbuilding and shed.

Helston is a traditional market town which boasts much history and charm and stands as the gateway to the Lizard peninsula which is mainland Britain's most southerly point, with many picturesque coastal and rural villages. Helston town itself provides a good range of amenities, including a sports centre with indoor swimming pool, junior and comprehensive schooling, sixth form College, cinema, doctor's surgeries, hospital, pharmacies and a good variety of shops and supermarkets.
