Treetops

This isn't just a house or 'a property'. It truly represents the word "home". I bought the house May 2000 and raised my family here. They loved growing up in Solihull and everything was easily accessible for all of us - especially Tudor Grange swimming pool, running tracks and gym.

In 25 years - there has never been a robbery or crime on this block of Streetsbrook. It is a safe place. There is a reassurance that the fire brigade, local police and hospital are just a few blocks away, as are John Lewis, Waitrose and Aldi.

The good folk living on this road are a community who got to know each other better, banging saucepans during Covid.

And getting into Birmingham or London - what could be easier when you can pop out the gate at the end of the garden and walk across the road. The trees surrounding the garden baffle any sounds.

My son used one of the sheds as his 'hang out' for friends and had a table tennis table.

This home gives a family everything they could want. I have looked after it with a lot of care and it has been filled with love.

I am only leaving it now because my family are in London and I want to be close at hand for my little granddaughter.

Don't be put off by its being on a main road - it does not affect quality of life.
