Location

Wythall is a village and civil parish in the Bromsgrove District, in the north-east corner of the county of Worcestershire. Wythall parish borders Solihull and Birmingham. Solihull boasts a range of first-rate local amenities, including excellent schools, parks, charming architecture and a range of recreational and leisure facilities: sports clubs; golf clubs; various societies; good restaurants; a top of the range shopping experience, a multi-screen cinema and arts complex that includes a library and a theatre. Wythall is around 7 miles south of Birmingham City Centre (a 20-minute train journey from Wythall railway station) and is convenient for the road networks linking the M42, M6, M40, M1 and M5. The NEC, Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station are all within an approx 20 minute drive.
