Conveyancing

We are able to offer a free quotation for your conveyancing from a panel of local solicitors or licensed conveyancers.

Offers

For offers to be submitted in the best light, the majority of vendors require us to confirm buyers have been financially qualified. We will require a Mortgage Certificate or Agreement In Principle (A.I.P.) and proof of deposit or cash. This information will be treated confidentially and will not be seen by any other party. We are obliged by law to pass on all offers to the vendors until contracts have been exchanged.

Money Laundering Regulations 2017 & Proceeds of Crime Act 2002

In order to comply with the above Regulations, an intending purchaser will be required to provide official I.D; proof of address, evidence of funding and source of deposit clearly showing the name of the account holder. If funds are being provided by a third party i.e. family, we will require the same from them too. We will verify clients identity electronically from the details provided. The information will be checked against various databases. This is not a credit check of any kind and does not affect credit history. We will retain a record on file.

General Data Protection Regulations 2018

Should you view or offer on this property, we will require certain pieces of personal information in order to provide a professional service to you and our client.

The personal information provided by you may be shared with the seller, but it will not be shared with any other third parties without your consent.

More information on how we hold and process your data is available on our website – www.richardjames.net

Mortgages

We are able to offer our clients mortgage advice through our association with an independent mortgage advisor. Written quotations are available on request. A life policy may be required.

The information given in these particulars is intended to help you decide whether you wish to view this property and to avoid wasting your time in viewing unsuitable properties. We have tried to make sure that these particulars are accurate, but to a large extent we have to rely on what the seller tells us about the property. We do not check every single piece of information ourselves as the cost of doing so would be prohibitive and we do not wish to unnecessarily add to the cost of moving house. Once you find the property you want to buy, you will need to carry out more investigations into the property is property as the cost of moving house.
