Wynnstay Hall Estate, Wrexham

£250,000

Located in a slightly elevated setting within the Dee Valley on the much favoured residential Development of the Wynnstay Hall Estate which is originally the Principal Seat of the Watkin Williams Wynn's and has been developed to form a unique residential development set within 27 Acres of Grade II listed gardens which were designed by Lancelot Capability' Brown in 1777. Enjoying stunning views across the gardens with the Welsh Hills as a backdrop, it is surprising how convenient the location is to the A483 by pass that links Wrexham, Chester, North Wales and the North West therefore allowing for daily commuting to the major Commercial, Industrial and Tourism Centres of the region. The nearest village is Ruabon and it has an excellent range of convenience shopping, train station and both primary and secondary schools.
