EXTERNALLY

The property is accessed through an impressive gateway leading to ample gravel off-road parking and turning space positioned to the side. The front and side of the property are adorned with beautifully tended, colourful mature gardens. The gravel driveway extends to a tarmac parking area featuring three timber carports with power and light, adjacent to an integrated timber garage also equipped with power and light.

Across from the carports are three additional garages, each with power and light, accessible through double timber doors and an up-and-over garage door respectively. Adjacent to the garages is an enclosed log store, also equipped with power and light, providing three separate spaces for log storage. In the rear corner of the brick built garage is an outside toilet and sink with electric hot water heater. Behind the log store is a area of paviments and flags for parking of a large touring caravan.

To the rear of the parking area, a farmhouse gate opens to further parking space with ample room for manoeuvring and turning. This area serves as the entrance to a stunning woodland, extending to the rear with well-maintained trails and a variety of different species of trees.

ADDENDUM

The property is serviced via LPG heating and has its own septic tank.

The property includes ample grounds, and with the correct planning permission, it would be possible to develop future leisure facilities, providing an additional source of income.
