LOCATION

Vicarage Hill is situated in Minera, a village and community in Wrexham County Borough in Wales. Minera lies approximately 7 km west of Wrexham town centre in a scenic upland setting at the head of the Clywedog Valley, with views across countryside and towards surrounding hills. Minera itself features local amenities typical of a village environment, with wider services and facilities available in Wrexham.

EXTERNALLY

The property is entered through an iron gate opening onto a gently sloping chipped pathway, with lawn and shrub gardens to either side. There is hedging to the boundaries and an external light positioned to the left-hand side of the main entrance door. The rear garden is low maintenance and comprises a paved patio area, artificial lawn, and garden area with a timber shed to the rear. There is also an external light and water supply. The rear garden is low maintenance and comprises a paved patio area, artificial lawn, and garden area with a timber shed to the rear. There is also an external light and water supply.

ENTRANCE HALL

The property is entered via a composite double-glazed front door, opening into an entrance hall with ceramic tiled flooring and a vaulted ceiling with an exposed beam. Stairs rise to the first-floor accommodation, and doors lead to the kitchen/dining room and living room.
