19 Finch Road, Earley, Reading, RG6 7JX – Price £500,000

A good-sized family home, close to the station and in the traditional Maiden Erlegh catchment...

3 good-sized bedrooms, bathroom with separate shower, separate WC, 2 reception rooms, refitted kitchen, conservatory, driveway parking for approx. 3 cars, gas radiator central heating, double glazing, gardens, useful covered store.

A 1950's semi-detached house being sold for the first time in about 30 years. A much-loved family home during that time, with various improvements over the years, but now ready for the next family to make it their own and update accordingly.

The property has been enlarged by way of a conservatory but many houses in the area have been enlarged further, either by extensions or loft conversions, so it may be that similar potential exists for this property, subject to any necessary consent.

The location is excellent, lying within the Loddon Primary School catchment and the original part of the Maiden Erlegh catchment. There are local shops nearby and bus services in the area providing access into Reading town centre where there is a main line railway station with fast services to Paddington as well as services to Waterloo, running through the nearby Earley Railway Station. The Elizabeth Line now runs from Reading as well.

The M4 motorway can be joined either at Junction 11 (where there is also the A33 south towards Basingstoke) or at Junction 10 where London then lies about 40 miles away and Heathrow Airport about 28 miles away.

N.B. Front and internal photos (except kitchen) from 2021.
