A sought after setting, just a few hundred yards from Earley railway station and bus services providing access into Reading town centre.

There are local shops available on Silverdale Road with more extensive facilities at the Asda and Marks & Spencer complexes in Lower Earley, or at Woodley precinct.

The property is within the Aldryngton Primary School catchment and the shared Maiden Erlegh School catchment. It is also not far from Maiden Erlegh Nature Reserve, doctors and dentist surgeries and within easy reach of two junctions of the M4.

It may well be that there is potential for enlargement if required, subject to any necessary consents, although this would make an extremely pleasant home as it is.
