DIRECTIONS

From Penzance proceed in a westerly direction and take the A3071 signposted St. Just. As you enter St Just turn left and then right onto Carn Bosavern. Number 40 is situated at the far end of the terrace.

It certainly is all about the location and what more could you want than to be nestled away at the far end of a traffic free terrace of traditional stone cottages in a thriving town such as St Just? The property is calling out for the next family to come along and renovate it to make it their own, The current configuration provides an entrance hall, lounge, kitchen, dining room, breakfast room (utility), and a shower room on the ground floor. On the first floor are the three bedrooms. Assets to number 40 Carn Bosavern are the gardens to three sides, a detached garage and of course sea views.

St Just is a wonderful friendly community with a myriad of independent shops, eateries, schools and galleries. Then you have the incredible walks along the rugged North Coast.
