DIRECTIONS

As you enter Penzance and approach the railway station on the left follow the one way system heading out of the town again, take the first turning on the left into Mount Street. Proceed up the hill and as the road bears around to the left, this becomes Penwith street and the property is on the right.

Situated in Penwith Street, Penzance, this terraced house is coming to the market for the first time in decades. It presents a wonderful opportunity for those looking to create their own home and with two reception rooms, two bedrooms and rear access, once renovated this property will make a comfortable family home.

The location is particularly advantageous, as it is conveniently situated near the town centre, schools, and travel links, making it ideal for families and commuters alike. There is a sunny rear courtyard and outbuilding with potential to extend with the necessary planning permission.

Additionally, the attic space offers further potential for expansion or storage, making this property a versatile choice for those looking to invest in a town centre property.

The property does not have any heating.

There is a disability access lift into the rear courtyard.
