Set in privacy and seclusion, The Willows is hidden right in the middle of the village which is just 5 miles from the ancient market town of Penzance. Lamorna Cove is a stunning valley where pebbled streams run through the woods down to the cove where you will also find a pebble beach, harbour and quay.

With its coastal and woodland setting, Lamorna has attracted many artists over the years and still maintains a strong artist community due to the quality of light and natural beauty.

If you're looking for a lifestyle change, The Willows could be the property for you. Commanding wonderful far-reaching views and sea glimpses in a tremendously peaceful setting, wildlife takes centre stage in this beautifully presented 3 bedroom home with a 1 bedroom annexe. The house sits proudly in an elevated position, surrounded by garden, woodland, fruit trees and organic vegetable beds. The Willows offers a sense of freedom, escape and wonderful calm.
