4 High Street, Puckeridge, SG11 1RN

An exquisite 5 bedroom double fronted period residence dating back to the late Georgian/early Victorian era offering impeccably kept accommodation, which includes 4 principal reception rooms, a kitchen/breakfast room, utility & separate boot room, guest wc and a useful cellar. On the first floor, there are 5 bedrooms, a large family bathroom, en-suite shower room to the main bedroom and additional shower room. Externally, there is a gated driveway leading to a large double garage with an attached games room / home office. The gardens, which are a particular feature of the property, are mainly walled with beautifully maintained borders and enjoying a sunny westerly aspect.

Located within the rarely available and pretty High Street, which offers a thriving community and amenities including a village store, 2 pubs, doctors and a village primary school. The nearby towns of Buntingford, Hertford, Ware and Bishops Stortford offers a great choice of shops, restaurants and mainline train stations, along with excellent state and private schooling for all ages.
