Garden Lodge Coles Park, Westmill, Nr. Buntingford, Hertfordshire, SG9 9LT

An exceptional country retreat including an elegant 4 bedroom detached period lodge set in beautiful gardens of about 1 acre. The accommodation has been meticulously maintained combining a wealth of character with modern technology including air conditioning, back up generator and private water supply. In addition to the main accommodation there is a detached self contained studio and open views over countryside. The property is offered chain free and viewing is highly recommended.

The property is beautifully nestled amongst some of East Hertfordshire's most beautiful countryside forming part of the original Coles Park country estate on the edge of the prestigious village of Westmill. Westmill is renowned as a pretty, quaint essential English village, retaining an excellent village pub, The Sword In Hand, along with a village tea rooms. The nearby market towns of Buntingford and Ware offer an excellent choice of shops, restaurants and schools, whilst the independent schools of St Edmunds and Heathmount are a short distance away.
