The Development

Pinetree Court is a retirement development with a target audience aimed at over 60s. There is security entry on the ground floor where there is also a member of concierge staff/house manager at most times of the day. There is a fully equipped and spacious laundry room (cost included in the maintenance charge) on the ground floor along with a Guest Suite (additional charge) for family members, should they choose to stay over. There are lifts and stairs to all floors and there is a super residents lounge with a kitchen where residents are able to socialise together and enjoy talks, activities and a friendly cup of tea. Pinetree Court is very well located to the bus and railway stations, which provide excellent travel times (20mins approx..) into Kings Cross or St Pancras. Located just across from the Town Centre which has a variety of shops, cafes and banking facilities. Pinetree Court also provides a house manager on site.
