Presenting for sale, this distinguished detached house, steeped in character and potential. This property, in need of some modernisation, offers a unique opportunity for families seeking a home to make their own. Situated within a short walk from the bustling market town centre of Louth, the location is ideal for those who desire a balance between convenience and tranquillity.

This substantial domicile boasts five bedrooms, providing ample space for a large family or for guests. The bedrooms are split across the ground floor, first floor and annex area, all designed to serve as a personal sanctuary. Coupled with three bathrooms, in the form of a five-piece suite family bathroom with free standing bath, walk in shower, WC, wash hand basin and bidet, ensuite shower room to master bedroom and wet room to the ground floor annex.

The home features not one, but two kitchens, a kitchen diner to the main house and a kitchen to the annex, offering the potential for creative culinary endeavours or perhaps a space for entertaining. Along with the useful addition of a utility room.

With four reception rooms, this house is an entertainer's dream, with space for a formal dining room, a relaxing lounge, a study, and perhaps a playroom for children. One of these reception rooms is to the first floor in the form of a galleried room overlooking the snug adding a unique architectural feature to the property.

The property is not just defined by its large rooms, but also by its unique features. A focal point of the home is the two exposed brick fireplace's incorporating cast iron log burners, creating a cosy and warm atmosphere during the colder months.

The property also benefits from ample parking space in the form of a driveway to the front of the property and a large double garage, providing secure storage for vehicles or additional storage space.

One of the standout features of this property is the self-contained studio annex, which could serve as an ideal guest suite, home office, or supplementary income through rental.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a spacious south-facing garden, inviting an abundance of natural light into the home and creating a sun-filled haven in the warmer months. With stunning patio area enclosed with a high level brick wall providing a high degree of privacy.

With an EPC rating of C, the property demonstrates a reasonable level of energy efficiency. It falls within council tax band D, making it a cost-effective option for families. The property also benefits from uPVC double glazing throughout and gas fired central heating.

In terms of location, the property is situated on a private road which only provides access to two properties, and is ideally located near schools and local amenities, making it perfect for families. The property is equally suited to those who enjoy the vibrancy and convenience of town living whilst also appreciating the calm and relaxation of home life.

In summary, this is a unique opportunity to acquire a sizeable family home with immense potential. With its unique features and convenient location, this property is a canvas awaiting your personal touch.
