A stunning three bedroom townhouse conversion in the multi award winning development of Clementhorpe Maltings. Originally a Grade II listed malting house, the property has undergone an extensive and sympathetic programme of renovations to ensure its historic industrial past remains intact. Now offering 6 properties all with their own individual character and period charm, number 3 offers substantial accommodation arranged over four floors, including a light and spacious sitting room, three bedrooms, bathroom and ensuite wash room and a separate store/utility. The development has been awarded best residential development in Yorkshire and Humber by the RICS 2017 amongst many other prestigious awards.

Accessed via a double height communal entrance housing the original HJH King furnace as well as Malting vats and other original industrial pieces. The property begins with a hall leading through to two spacious double bedrooms and house bathroom, to the second floor there is an open plan living room and kitchen, with painted units complemented by granite worksurfaces. The kitchen includes built-in Siemens appliances and quality fittings. Stairs lead up to the fourth floor which has the guest bedroom and ensuite washroom. To the lower ground floor is a large storeroom/utility area, which could be used as a home gym/ pool room.

Externally, the property benefits from a communal secure storeroom and the use of the communal courtyard garden.

In summary, 3 Clementhorpe Maltings offers exceptional accommodation and a high quality finish within a unique setting.
