Swanlow Drive
Acaster Malbis, York
YO23 2AD

£175,000

Owned from new six years ago, this handsome modern park home offers a bright and light space on a wonderful development.

A rare design, is this two bedroom detached park home situated in this popular development to the south of York near Acaster Malbis. Exclusive to those over 50, this development has a lovely sense of community and offers easy access to York city centre, either by car or public transport.

The accommodation is bright and airy comprising a generous living room, a separate dining room and spacious kitchen with shaker style kitchen units. Unlike some homes on the development, this property offers a modern shower room and generous en-suite off the master bedroom. The master bedrooms also boasts a walk in wardrobe.

Externally is a beautifully designed courtyard style garden which is paved with outbuildings for storage. The property also benefits from driveway parking to both sides of the property.

Immaculately presented throughout, this property must be viewed to appreciate all that is on offer.
