Offers Over £600,000

A tastefully extended and most versatile family house having been extended to the side and rear as well as a large attic extension to provide a fantastic master suite.

The traditional semi detached house has had a dining kitchen extension to the rear with a separate office and shower room set to the side of the property behind the store room, with its own front entrance, adding a high degree of versatility for someone working from home.

There are also 4 good sized bedrooms, two of which have ensuite bathrooms, all completed to an extremely high standard set in large mature gardens in a most sought after location.

An early inspection is highly recommended.
