A rare opportunity to acquire a sought after Sawdon & Simpson semi detached house with the added benefit of a superb, self contained one bedroom ground floor annex, ideal for a dependant relative.

The extension was completed a little over 10 years ago to an exceptional standard and adds a different dimension to what is already a sought after family home.

The property is situated in this popular and sought after location, handy for a range of shops and local amenities as well as for access to the ring road and A64.

A most unique property offered at a most realistic price.
