Guide Price £350,000

A ground floor garden apartment boasting two bedrooms, a garage, and a private outdoor decking leading to an enchanting communal garden.

Ideally situated just off Bootham for easy access to the city centre. This charming apartment is part of a select collection of six residences converted in 2004 from a historic private dwelling constructed in 1886 for Mr. Platnauer, the "Keeper of the Yorkshire Museums".

Positioned on a leafy thoroughfare off Bootham, a short walk from two prestigious independent schools and a stroll from the iconic city walls and railway station. Comprising an entrance hall, spacious open plan living/ dining/ kitchen, two bedrooms, two bathrooms (including one en suite) and a private garage for storage or parking. This residence epitomizes comfort and convenience retaining many of the original features of the former house including great ceiling heights and ornate stone window surrounds.

Outside, a private decking area accessed via French doors from the second bedroom is one of the only ones on the development. A private garage is include with power for parking or storage.

Nestled within picturesque Bootham, lined with elegant Georgian and Victorian residences, St Olave's Road offers a tranquil residential setting within easy reach of the city's amenities. A Sainsbury's Local, delicatessen, and local bakery are just a short stroll away, while the mainline railway station is conveniently accessed via a nearby pedestrian bridge
