£450,000

Situated in this prominent location, overlooking open fields, this superb family house is a mere few hundred yards from the village centre, well served with a range of local amenities lying less than three miles from the city centre.

The property has been extended to the rear on both the ground and first floor adding a dressing room to one bedroom and a second sitting room on the ground floor. The gardens are set to both the front and rear with an extended brick garage and driveway for several cars.

A great family house with open views.
