£450,000

Offered with no onward chain, is this superb, extended, detached family house, set at the head of this sought after cul de sac and close to the heart of the village.

Copmanthorpe is well served with a range of shops and local amenities as well as a primary school and easy access to both the city centre and further afield via the A64.

The property has been well maintained by the current owners for which it has been a well loved family home. It benefits from a ground floor extension which can be used as a fourth bedroom, garden room or second sitting room in addition to large open plan living space with large windows making for a light and modern feel to this superb family house.

A great family home in a sought after location.
