Positioned in the popular residential area of Acomb, and just off Beckfield Lane, is this beautifully presented three bedroom semi detached home. Set in a generous plot with a wonderful rear garden, this property offers the potential for further development and extension (subject to the relevant planning permissions). Albion Avenue is placed just off Beckfield Lane and is within walking distance of a variety of local amenities, bus connections to York city centre, the ring road and Manor Church of England Academy.

Internally the property offers an entrance porch which opens into the bright and airy living / dining room. Benefiting from windows on multiple aspects, this room is flooded with natural light throughout the day and is large enough for both a dining and living area. The internal hall provides access into the contemporary kitchen which offers an array of shaker style wall and base units allowing for plenty of storage and worktop space. The ground floor is completed by a deep storage cupboard and a convenient utility room/w.c.

On the first floor are three well proportioned bedrooms, and spacious landing and a stunning house bathroom.

Set on a wonderful plot, this property offers a larger than average south west facing rear garden that offers lawn, patio and mature flower bed areas. Perfect for those that work from home, there is a generous studio within the garden with large patio doors looking out to the lawn. Insulated and with power, this space could be a wonderful home office. Set to the end of the garden is another summer house and a large spacious concrete storage unit. Ample driveway parking can be found at the front of the property.

In summary a wonderful family home located in a popular residential area, early viewing is highly recommended.
