£637,000

A remarkable five-bedroom home situated in a sought-after residential area, offering stunning views of York Racecourse. Upon entry through the porch, a welcoming hallway guides you to a ground floor shower room and understairs storage. The lounge, adorned with a grand bay window and a feature fireplace, emanates warmth and light.

The focal point of this residence lies in its magnificent living kitchen diner, a spacious haven at the rear. The kitchen boasts integrated appliances, a central island, and abundant natural light pouring in through windows, patio doors, and skylights. Completing the ground floor is a large integral garage, equipped with a utility area.

Ascending to the first floor reveals four bedrooms, including one with a bay window, and a family bathroom. The second floor has been converted into an additional double bedroom with dormer windows offering picturesque views of the racecourse.

External features include a lawned front garden, double driveway, and a rear garden with patio seating. Viewing this property is highly recommended to fully appreciate it.
