Guide Price £525,000

An exquisitely designed two-bedroom luxury apartment, currently operating as a successful holiday let.

Ryedale House is a prestigious development situated within York's historic city walls. Located on the second floor, this apartment offers two spacious double bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, making it perfect for city-centre living or as a premium holiday home.

This recently converted residential development spans seven floors, boasting a grand entrance foyer complete with a concierge service. Its elevated position provides unparalleled views of York's iconic skyline, including landmarks such as Clifford's Tower and York Minster.

Designed with cutting-edge modernity, the apartment features a high-quality interior finish with floor-to-ceiling glazing that floods the space with natural light while showcasing breath-taking panoramic views of York's historic beauty.

The striking architecture of Ryedale House stands apart, towering above similar developments and offering a contemporary contrast to the traditional stone-built heritage buildings across the river. Residents benefit from a host of conveniences, including generous private storage lockers on each floor, secure bike storage, a refuse chute, sprinkler systems, and lifts to all levels, ensuring both ease of access and peace of mind.
