£260,000

A newly built duplex one bedroom apartment, discreetly tucked away behind a charming listed property on Blossom Street and accessed via a gated archway. The property benefits from a non-restrictive lease, allowing owners the flexibility to let the apartment for both long-term and short-term rentals.

Ideally located on Blossom Street, this highly desirable city centre address offers views of the historic Micklegate Bar walls and provides convenient access to local amenities, York City Centre, and York Railway Station, all within walking distance.

Entering the development through the elegant coach archway with secure communal gates, the front door is accessed via a gantry overlooking the communal garden. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hallway leading to a spacious double bedroom and a modern bathroom featuring a walk-in shower and marble-effect tiles. On the first floor, an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining, and lounge area boasts a vaulted ceiling with Velux windows, creating a bright and airy space. The room opens onto a private first-floor balcony, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The sleek grey kitchen is equipped with integrated appliances and finished to a high standard with luxury fittings.

Externally, the property includes access to a communal garden and a bin store.
