Guide Price £400,000

A most versatile investment or development opportunity comprising a large end terrace house and a ground floor retail space, which has been used as a café until recently. There is a large two bedroom duplex on the first and second floor offering spacious living accommodation with a wealth of original features.

There is also a large garage with access from Rose Street which could offer potential for further extension or development.

A truly unique property of surprising proportions and huge potential.
