Situated in the heart of this beautiful commuter village, this large piece of freehold property offers a wealth of potential and includes a large previously popular public house; above are five bedroom accommodation currently providing a substantial income. On the ground floor is a large public bar and dining room as well as well as 3 kitchen/prep areas, toilets and a cellar/pump room. To the rear of the property is a rear walled yard/ parking area with vehicular access to the neighbouring property. The pub has not traded for several years but affords a great opportunity to develop a substantial business.

The picturesque village of Flaxton lies 9 miles to the north of the city centre, less than a mile off the busy A64 route to the coast and North York Moors, with the busy community of Strensall less than 3 miles to the south.

A rare opportunity offered at a most realistic price.

The property is not subject to VAT.
