Forming part of this exclusive development, coming to the market for the first time since the conversion of this fantastic building to provide a range of unique city centre apartments of the highest quality. This particular apartment is situated on the top floor and commands views across the city centre with a light a modern feel provided by the large picture windows. The property has been successfully run as a rental and holiday let over recent years, making it a great investment, or given the size and location of the property it would also lend itself to being a stunning city centre home.

Castle Chambers is accessed from Clifford Street, a mere few hundred yards from Cliffords Tower and Kings Staith, practically at the end of Coney Street, in the city centre, a more central location could not really be envisaged. The building itself has a secure entrance lobby with 2 lifts leading to the upper floors, a large utility area with ample cycle storage and ventilated bin store.

This particular apartment has fantastic views over Castlegate and St Marys Church.
