Asking Price £260,000

 3  1

A large three bedroom semi detached family house situated in this popular and convenient location, handy for a range of shops and local amenities which are practically on the doorstep.

The property has been well cared for over the years and benefits from this superb open plan style design with dining kitchen. The property would be greatly enhanced by a scheme of cosmetic improvements to bring the full potential out of this property as it takes little imagination to envisage a stunning contemporary family home.

Outside there is an attached garage with additional store or workshop and good sized gardens to the front and rear.
