£70,000

Situated in the heart of York's historic city centre, this purpose-built student accommodation offers modern, comfortable living ideally suited to today's students. Fully renovated in 2015, the building has been thoughtfully redesigned to create a well-equipped, student-focused environment.

The property enjoys a prime location within close proximity to both York St John University and the University of York, making it an excellent choice for students seeking convenience, connectivity, and vibrant city living.

Each self-contained unit features a modern fitted kitchen, a comfortable bedroom, and a dedicated sitting area, providing a practical yet welcoming space for both study and relaxation. The accommodation is completed by a private shower room, finished to a contemporary standard.

The property is being offered with no onward chain.

Combining an unbeatable central location with modern interiors and purpose-built design, this property represents an outstanding student living opportunity in one of the UK's most desirable university cities.
