A deceptively spacious and charming three bedroom town house, situated in this popular location, within short walking distance of The Racecourse, town centre and general hospital. The property has been improved by the current owners whilst retaining many original features throughout.

Accommodation over four floors comprises entrance hall, sitting room with mezzanine and study on the ground floor. Lower level comprises a spacious re-fitted kitchen/dining room. To the first floor is a double bedroom with re-fitted en-suite and a re-fitted family bathroom. The second floor comprises two further good size bedrooms. Outside is an enclosed low maintenance rear garden with fruit trees and outside storage. Further benefits include gas radiator heating and uPVC double glazing. (A/1311/M)
