Excellent value is this charming double fronted four bedroom Victorian cottage located in the conservation area of Brixworth, within walking distance of amenities, offered with no onward chain.

The cottage is constructed over three floors (excluding the cellar) and comprises entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor landing, sitting room with fireplace, formal dining room with door to the cellar, rear lobby giving access to the rear courtyard cottage style garden and access to the kitchen. The kitchen has a view over the courtyard garden and has a built-in pantry. There is potential to relocate the kitchen to the dining area to create a kitchen/diner and convert the existing kitchen into a utility/boot room and WC (subject to building regulations.) To the first floor is a double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a generous size single bedroom and bathroom with shower over the bath. To the second floor there are two further double bedrooms with potential to convert to a master suite with dressing area and en-suite (subject to building regulations.) Outside, the cottage is approached via a wrought iron gate and enclosed pretty garden with gated access to the cottage style courtyard garden with two brick-built outbuildings. (B/1298/S)
