Set along one of Burnham's most favoured central turnings offering superb access to Burnham's Country Park, banks of the River Crouch, historic High Street, Marina, Sailing Clubs and railway station is this wonderfully spacious and well presented semi-detached chalet style family home. The property offers great potential to both improve and extend further if required (STP), however already offers great living space commencing on the ground floor with an entrance porch opening to an inviting hallway which in turn provides access to an open plan living/dining room with conservatory at the rear, ground floor bedroom, cloakroom and impressive kitchen/breakfast room with adjoining utility room. The first floor then provides an airy landing leading to a superbly sized, dual aspect master bedroom in addition to a further bedroom, family bathroom and separate shower room. Externally, the property enjoys a simply stunning rear garden which measures approx. 71' and has been cared for meticulously by the present owner over a number of years, while the frontage provides a further garden area and a driveway which offers off road parking and access to a garage. Properties of this ilk and in this most sought after of locations are rare to the market so an early inspection is strongly advised. Energy Rating E.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
