103 Leslie Park, Burnham-on-Crouch, Essex CM0 8SY Price £215,000

NO ONWARD CHAIN Set in the corner of a quiet cul-de-sac within one of Burnham's most favoured modern developments is this ideal first time or investment purchase. The property is positioned favourably within walking distance of Burnham's historic High Street and it's array of pubs, restaurants and sailing clubs as well as further amenities including supermarket, doctors surgery, post office, schools and railway station which offers direct links into London Liverpool Street. The property does require a degree of modernisation, however deceptively spacious living accommodation commences with an entrance porch opening to a dual aspect living/dining room which in turn leads to a kitchen at the rear. The first floor then offers a landing leading to an impressively sized double bedroom with built in wardrobe and bathroom. Externally, the property enjoys the benefit of a well presented rear garden while off road parking is on offer via an allocated space at the rear of the property. Interest in this property is expected to be high so an early inspection is strongly advised. Energy Rating TBC.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
